

Peter Willett

Deputy Head – Pastoral Care

Peter brings with him over 35 years of diverse experience in education and the British Army. Known for his unwavering commitment to excellence, he is dedicated to maintaining high standards of behaviour, aspiration and care - Qualities that align with the values at Shrewsbury.

With more than 20 years in international education, Peter has held prominent leadership roles at prestigious institutions such as Sedbergh School in China and Aiglon College in Switzerland. At Sedbergh, he played a key role in fostering a strong culture of care and safeguarding, which led to notable improvements in both academic performance and student behaviour. At Aiglon, his focus on holistic education solidified his reputation as an inspiring leader among the teaching fraternity.

As a talented artist and a dedicated art educator, Peter has successfully guided students to secure places at some of the world's most prestigious art, design and architecture programmes. His deep passion for creativity and innovation profoundly influences his approach to teaching, encouraging students to reach their full artistic potential.

Peter's background in the British Army instilled in him key values of resilience, accountability and excellence, which continue to shape his leadership style. His visionary approach ensures that both students and staff at Shrewsbury feel empowered and encouraged to thrive.

Peter holds a PGCE from the University of Cambridge and a B.A. (Honours) in Art History and Fine Art. His extensive experience, combined with his commitment to personal development and education, makes him a valued addition to Shrewsbury International School India.

